

REMARKS

Claims 66-85 are now pending. Applicant has canceled claims 46-65 and added claims 66-85.

The Examiner has rejected claims 46-65 under 35 U.S.C. § 103(a) based on a combination of references as outlined in the following table:

Claims	References
46-50, 54, 61-64	Jokela, Allen, and Janay
51-52	Jokela, Allen, Janay, and Goldberg
53, 65	Jokela, Allen, Janay, and Hita
55	Jokela and Janay
56-58	Jokela, Allen, and Janay
59-60	Jokela, Janay, Hita, and Goldberg

Although applicant has canceled these claims, applicant would like to make the following remarks about the new claims.

The new claims recite that a client computing device receives a dictionary with a correspondence between linguistic components and contexts with their actions. Claims 66-73 recite "receiving from the server computing device a dictionary that includes a correspondence between linguistic components and contexts with their associated actions." Claims 74-81 recite "receiving from the server computing device a dictionary that includes linguistic components and contexts with associated actions." Claims 82-85 recite "the client computing device receives the dictionary that includes linguistic components and contexts with associated actions." None of the relied-upon references teaches or suggests such receiving of a dictionary from a server computing device.

In addition, claims 66-73 recite that the context includes "document type and user role" and that the dictionary is "maintained for the enterprise for distribution to multiple client computing devices of the enterprise." None of the relied-upon references teaches or suggests that the context includes both document type and user role or that a dictionary is maintained for an enterprise for distribution to the client computing devices of the enterprise.

Based upon the above amendments and remarks, applicant respectfully requests reconsideration of this application and its early allowance. If the Examiner has any questions, or believes a telephone conference would expedite prosecution of this application, the Examiner is encouraged to call the undersigned at (206) 359-8548.

Please charge any deficiencies or credit any overpayments to our Deposit Account No. 50-0665, under Order No. 418268741US from which the undersigned is authorized to draw.
